REMINISCENSES OF OUR PIONEER DAYS

Gleanings From the Records Left By Men Who Laid the Foundation of Our County.

ODD FELLOWS AT PESCADERO

Ocean View Lodge No. 143 Was Instituted April 18th, 1868, the Second Lodge in County

King Alcohol was the cause of another serious trouble in this section in the latter part of March, the scene this time being laid in the usually vuiet vit cinity of Woodside. At a dance given at the old Temperance Hall, a row occurred between William Fitzgerald, a teamster, and another knight of the ribbons known as "Dutch Fred," as a result of which Fitzgerald received three ugly cuts in the ribs, one of which penetrated dangerously close to the heart and for a time threatened to end his earthly career. As soon as the affray was over "Dutch Fred" disappeared and went into hiding for several days, despite the fact that the Sheriff's officers were making dilligent search for him. After the officers had given up the hunt, Fred voluntarily appeared and gave himself up, with the explanation that he had kept under cover from that if captured before Fitzgerald's friends had had time to coll off he might have been lynched. Fred was locked up without any particular charge being placed against him, and was kept in durance a long time while the doctors labored to save his victim. At the tie of the "scrap" it was a difficult matter to determine just who was the most to be blamed as the entire party was pretty well "soaked."

Ocean View Lodge No. 143, I. O. O. F., the second lodge of that Order to be organized in San Mateo County, was instituted at Halfmoon Bay on the evening of April 18th, 1868. The ceremonys of the institution were conducted by Charles N. Fox, then Grand Master of the state, assisted by a number of other grand officers. It had been the intention of a number of the members of Bay View Lodge to attend the meeting, going from San Mateo by stage. With this purpose in view a number of the Redwood City Odd Fellows went to San Mateo about noon on Saturday, but when they arrived thus far on their journey they found that "someone had blundered" and no arrangements had been made with the stage company and as they were unable to secure transportation they were compelled to turn back.

Gn the 26th of April the Odd Fellows of the Bay District held one of the largest gatherings in the history of the county in celebration of the anniversary of the establishment of the order. The gathering was held on the picnic grounds near this city, and it was estimated that at least 7000 persons were on the grounds during the day, the majority nf whom came from Sas Francisco. The crowd was very much larger than had been expected, and it was found necessary to haul lumber from town during the day to provide seats and tables for the throng, and long benight hungry throngs were clamoring at empty refreshment booths.

The second election for the municipal officers of the town of Redwood City was held May 4th, the following officers being handed their honors without opposition: J, V. Diller, John W. Ackerson, A. Teague, James Hilton and J. Crowley, trustees; J. C. Edgar, marshal; Wilson Whitlock, assessor; S. H. Snyder, treasurer. Apparently there was an attempt upon the part of the candidates and their friends to make something of a joke of the election, probably due to the lack of opposition, as the device used at the head of the ticket was "S. T.—1860—X," which will be recalled by pioneer residents as a familiar trade mark used in advertising "Plantation Bitters," at that time a rather popular "stomach decoction."

With the opening of the fishing season at the coast side a new and somewhat novel industry was started at Pescadero by Robert Tilgham, a colored individual whose chief occupation consisted in attending to the tonsorial wants of the men of the section. This knight of the razor decided to add to his income by taking advantage of the necessities of visiting sportsmen and managed to work up quite a lucrative business as a dealer in angle worms. That spring he had employed a couple of "Greasers to dig fish bate, paying them at the rate of two cents a dozen for the "woms," which he sold to the fishermen at a dollar a hundred. That there was considerable doing in that line will be guessed when it is stated tat at one time he paid one of his diggers $18 for worms at the rate of two cents per dozen.

In those days it is evident that the town authorities were not loth to take advantage of every available means of taxation for revenue, as is shown in a report of a meeting of the Trustees on May 18th. Anong other business tne Trustees levied a property tax of $1 on each $100, a poll tax of $1 upon each male inhabitant, a tax of $1 on each male "dorg," and a tax of $3 on each emale "purp."

New Reservoir Ready.

Street Superintendent Dickey turned the city water into the new reservoir on the Dingee hills yesterday and found the pumps working satisfactorily under the increased pressure which is double that of the tanks on Phelps street. No leaks were found in the mains, though a few old laterals gave way under the heavy strain. The reservoir has an elevation of nearly 200 feet and gives a pressure of 75 pounds which will cause a good flow in all parts of town, besides affording an excellent protection against fire. The capacity of the reservoir is about 800,000 gallons. It is hoped that the change will effect a reduction in the insurance rates in this city.

JOBS WAITING FOR SIXTEEN

Census Enumeration Offers Employment for San Mateo People.

John W. Rogers, Supervisor of the Census for the 5th district of California, which embraces all of San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Monterey, San Benito and San Luis Obispo Counties, has established headquarters in the Auzerais Building, San Jose.

Just at present Supervisor Rogers is busily engaged in subdividing his district into enumeration districts. The law requires these enumeration districts shall be so planned as regards area and population that the work can be completed in the time allowed and that the boundaries of these districts should be so clearly definitely described that no omission or duplication of the population will occur. The enumeration of the population will commence on the 15th of April, and in cities of 5,000 population of over, must be completed within two weeks thereafter, while in the rural or country districts, 30 days is allowed. The probabilities are that the counties will be divided into approximately the following number of enumeration districts:

Santa Clara county 50. Santa Cruz county 21. Monterey 19. San Luis Obispo county 16. San Mateo county 16. San Benito county 9.

All persons desirous of serving as census enumerators in the fifth census district are required to make written application to the Supervisor of the Census, John W. Rogers, and all applications must be filed with him not later than January 25th, as any received after that cannot be considered.

Put in Jail

very accurately describes anyone's feelings who is confined to the house with an attack of rheumatism, lumbago, stiff joints or muscles. Ballard's Snow Liniment will cure the trouble, relieve the pain and make you as supple as a two year old. Sold by Ryan's drug store.

THEY NEVER FAIL

That is What They Say About Them in Redwood City, and It Is Therefore, Reliable.

Another proof, more evidence, Redwood City testimony to swell the long list of local people who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of that remarkable preparation:

John F. Benedict, 204 Heller street, Redwood City, Cal., says: "My back was so lame that I could scarcely get up or down and there were sharp pains over my kidneys. Often I suffered so severely that it was almost impossible for me to move. The kidney secretions were unnatural and passed so frequently that I was unable to rest well. Having Doan's Kidney Pills recommended to me, I began their use and they proved to be the best kidney medicine I had ever tried. During the past eight or ten years, I have had no serious trouble from my kidneys, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Whenever I take them, they benefit me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MADE CERTAIN OF END

Robert Severson Takes Desperate Means to End Life.

Carbolic acid, a razor and shotgun were the intended weapons of self-destruction whose use was planned by Robert Severson, a Danish gardener employed at the residence of Judge Henshaw at Fair Oaks some time Sunday; but the first two did their work, the man falling dead beside the gun which had been loaded for final use

Noticing that the stock on the Henshaw place had not been cared for Monday morning, Maurice Cronin, a coachman employed on the neighboring estate of Colonel Fred Eaton, investigated, believing that Severson might be ill.

Cronin placed a ladder against the house, and, climbing it, looked into Severson's room to find him lying on the floor in a pool of blood and the room a shambles.

Deputy Coroner Cronk was notified, and it was found that Severson had first evidently taken a large dose of acid. Then he had cut his left wrist deeply with a razor, and wandered about the house, finally returning to his own room and locking himself in, finally losing consciousness as he approached his loaded shotgun.

Severson, who was 40 years of age, and a Dane, left the following note: "I, R S. am suffering by cause of jealousy. R. S."

An inquest was held Tuesday forenoon by Coroner Plymire, the jury returning a verdict of suicide due to insanity.

Popular Contest Ended.

The contest at the Bell theatre for the most popular young lady closed Thursday last at noon and at the evening performance the result was announced as follows: Miss Havey, 1896 votes Miss Niello 1668, Miss Allen950. scattering 351. Miss Havey being the winner was given a gold locket and chain. The votes were counted daily by Chas. Landscheit and C. H. Woodhams. This week Burling and Urban, song and dance artists, are performing at the theater, and next week the amusement will be furnished by the two Kendalls, Billy and Emma. The moving pictures are an enjoyable feature of the show.

The constitutional amendment passed bythe legislature in 1902, giving the legislature power to make State game laws, did not annul the county ordinances then in efect, according to a decision of Appellate Justice A. G. Burnett, handed down Saturday in the matter of the application of Ray Cole and Joe Ruise for a writ of habeas corpus. The petitioners were charged with the violation of an ordinance entitled "An ordinance prohibiting the casting, extending or setting of any seine or net of any kind for the catching of any fish in any river, stream or slough in the county of Sonoma." This ordinance was passed by the supervisors of Sonoma county in 1899.

From Pomponia.

Miss Pinkham closed Pomponia schools the day before Christmas. We hope to see her back again next term.

Miss. Dora Anderson is improving nicely under Dr. Banks' care.

Dr. Thompson was called to the bedside of Miss Mary Sky New Years day. He reports nothing serious. We hope to see her out soon.

Frank Francis is putting his crop in in good shape. He will probably be running 8 or 9 teams next week. Frank certainly don't let the grass grow under his feet.

J. G. Anderson is putting up his private phone line to San Gregorio and it will soon be completed. He says it will be a great convenience to the Pomponia Gun Club headquarters.

Antone Enos is putting in a very large crop this year—much larger than ever before.

The cold snap is lasting well on the Pomponia. Had quite a fall of snow Sunday morning.

Dr. Banks was up last Tuesday on professional business.

We are glad to hear of the new cable and wharf to be erected at Pigeon Point in a short time and also the new saw mill to be built and last but not least of the railroad to be built from Pigeon Point up into the timber in connection with the new mill. About 10 miles of track will be laid We hear the timber is mostly to be shipped south to San Pedro and San Diego by steam schooner. The party seems to know what he is talking about now that Mr.L. Coburn has been declared competent and can do business without the interference of the courts.

We are wondering who is going to start the new grocery store here.

Halfmoon Bay Notes.

The trustees of the Halfmoon Bay High School district have not yet given up hope of securing the sanction of the voters to their plan of issuing bonds for the erection of a school building, although the proposal has met two defeats. Another call has been issued for an election to be held on January 28th. It is said that many who opposed the bonnds at the last election have changed their opinion and will support the movement next time.

SAYS IT IS POLITICS

L. P. Behrens Discusses Rumored Action of Grand Jury.

The grand jury was in session in this city all day Wednesday. As the members are sworn to secrecy it is impossible to ascertain what they actually did, however, it is stated that twelve of the nineteen members voted to bring indictments against Dr. J. L. Ross, president of the First National Bank, L. P. Behrens, cashier of the bank, and accusations against District Attorney J. J. Bullock. P. P. Chamberlain and Walter Loveland, justice of the peace of San Mateo.

The indictments will be based on the charge that President Ross and Cashier Behrens have violated the County and Municipal Deposit Act by recieving the funds of San Mateo county as a deposit without furnishing security as required and without paying the minimum interest of 2 per cent. The accusations against District Attorney Bullock and Treasurer Chamberlain will be tased on their failure to collect the 2 per cent interest provided for by the deposit act.

The accusation against Justice of the Peace Loveland will be based on his connection with a collection agency prosecuting a suit in his court.

It is to be earnestly hoped for all concerned and the county in general that the grand jury when it meets next week will not approve the indictments or accusations and that they will be squashed. It is a very serious thing to bring charges against men who have borne excellent reputations and have made this community their home for many years While it is the concensus of opinion that if such indictments and accusations were brought they would not be sustained in court yet a stigma would be left on these men that time would not efface nor years of toil eradicate. No good end can be subserved in bringing these innocent men into court. If there is money due the county from the bank make a case in court and have the matter decided once for all. The bankers say they owe no money for interest to the county and the grand jury says they do Let the vexed question be thrashed out before some tribunal.

"I have heard all kinds of rumors," said Mr. Behrens yesterday, "and I have heard that the grand jury voted to return indictments and accusations. But no indictments have been returned and I feel confident that none will be returned. We have been in business here for a number of years and our bank speaks for itself. If we owe the county anything let the county bring suit and collect it. The bank wouldn't suffer if judgment against it were returned. It could pay what it owes if it owes anything at all

"Politics—an effort to destroy Chamberlain politically—and rival business interests are behind these charges. Our side of the case has never been presented and only the insinuations and charges against us have been made public. We have accepted public funds just as any other bank would, but we have done nothing wrong and I am satisfied there will be no indictment."

CALLS IT EASY MONEY

Bet Easily Won by H. C. Tuchsen, Agent for Dingee Park,

Five days before Christmas, the assessment notices calling for the first installment on the $110,000 street work job that will be commenced shortly in Dingee Park, were received from the hands of Attorneys Ross & Ross, who have had charge of the proceedings leading up to the final payment of this assessment which ecame delinquent on January 12th.

When the papers were received by Tuchsen, M. Goldsmith, the popular cigar manufacturer happened to be in Tuchsen's office and remarked, "There is a nice Christmas package to hand out.'. "Even so,' said Tuchsen, but there will be a quick response to this.". "The buyers want to see the work done. I don't very often bet, but am willing to back my opinion with the coin, that there will not be over ten delinquents out of the whole 462 subdivisions covered by this assessment." This looked too good to Goldie, and a wager was quickly arranged. The day before the assessment was delinquent, every last one had been paid, and Tuchsen is now inviting his friends to come in his office and take a "DeMolay" with him. He says he wants everyone to "Smoke up" on the future of Dingee Park.

The loser said he thought he had a cinch, and had forgotten about it, until Tuchsen told him these figures on Tuesday:

"Amount of Dingee Park assessment first installment due $11,027.62. Amount actually paid $12,842.33. Delinquents 0."

Note: The Editor means to enjoy Tuchsen's hospitality to the full extent. He was counting on some "Cigar money" himself for the expected printing of the delinquent list, and must get even somewhere.

Mitton Will Be Brought Back

Late yesterday Sheriff Robert Chatham went to San Francisco to bring William Mitton to this city on a charge of having done the robbing at Menlo Park. After the thefts in Menlo Mitton was arrested and brought to jail on suspicion of having committed the robbery. However the officers could find no evidence to hold him and turned him loose. The sheriff was confident he was the rightt man and set a watch on him. Mitton sold his carpenter tools and departed for San Francisco. Chatham at once notified the city detectives to keep a sharp look out for him. Thursday Mitton was caught trying to sell a package of knives and razors to a pawn broker and was at once arrested. The cultery was the same as that taken from Duff and Doyle store on ney year's night. Mitton is supposed to have two accomplices and they will be apprehended within a day or two. Sheriff Chatham has labored hard on the case and deserves great credit for his clever work. It looks rather blue for Mitton.

Joseph H. Nash went to Salinas last Tuesday to assist in the installation of officers in the I. O. F. of that city. Mr. Nash is Grand Vice Chief Ranger of the Foresters.

THINGS WERE DOING AT THE UNION DEPOT

Society Crowds Alhambra at Benefit Entertainment for Womans Club.

AMATUERS MAKE A BIG HIT

Staid Business Men and Society Dames Frolic on Stage in Mimic of Comedies of Daily Life

There was "things doing" all the time at the Union Depot in Redwood City on Thursday evening, and the "guys" that went to the Alhambra "just to rubber" had fun to a queens taste. And there were lots of "gezabas" there, fellers from town with their best girls and guys from the country with other fellers best girls. And were they afraid of the rain—well I should say nit,, no more than a duck. And were the members of the W omans Club pleased with the reception given their efforts — they were just tickled to death.

Tae "Union Depot" as presented to an audience which in sipte of most unclement weather, occupied every seat in the Alhambra, portrayed several of the varied characters one who is accustomed to travel sometimes meets in real life. While the play is in one act, it affords a continual change of attraction and amusement, the charcters being introduced naturally as on party left and another arrived to take trains for varying destinations, and filled in their waits with the troubles of the unacurtomed traveler.

All of the depot surroundings were there, with the waiting room in charge of an ideal depot master in the person of Will Price, and the genial face of C. E. Cumberson at the ticket window, where he thumped the dater with the air of a veteran, and these two were on duty all the time, as also was Dr. Cummings, who made an ideal "shiner" hanger on in the character of Joe Gamin, and Mrs J. F. Liguori who held sway as the maid who presided over the lunch counter, while Mr. Woodham kept things moving as a porter should One of the best of the fun makers was Miss McCarthy, whose character of Mrs. Garrulous was a splendid bit of character and dialect acting. The first of the travelers to arrive at the depot was the Woman who would n't take the bus, when Mrs. Frank K. Towne started the fun which lasted until the drop of the curtain. Next Mrs. Martha Chattermuch, and Mrs. Lila Kirkpatrick showed that she was familiar with the troubles of the woman who always had something to tell and some advice to offer, and Miss Caroline Doxsee, as her daughter proved a good second. Between the two the audience kept in a roar over the relations of the ills of feminine life and the proffers of homely advice. Mrs. Isabel Folsom, as Aunt Amelia Saylittle, and Frank Read as her nephew Willie, while they did not palaver as much as some of the others nevertheless furnished lots of good fun. And it was worth the price of the whole show to see Curran Clark as Uncle Josh Hayseed and Mrs. Squires as his wife, both of whom did the back country to perfection. And who would have suspected that Frank Towne would so perfectly portray the over sanctimonious Deacon Longface. Another right good piece of fun was given the audience by P. P. Chamberlain and Mrs. R S. Albert, as Mr. and Mrs. Henpeck. Mrs. Albert fully represented the shrew of the house, and it will be hard to convince Chamberlain's audience that he has not somewhere had some experience although of course he will deny the impeachment—well if he hasn't he is a good actor. Mrs. John Read portrayed the anxious wife, alone with her kids and in sore straits to perfection, with her eloquent appeal for aid, which opened the way for two of the hits of the evening—the singing of Mrs. Asa McLellan and the Spanish dance by Miss Thompson of San Francisco. Asa McLellan's portrayal of the Wid ower Smith with his numerous family of little ones, in search of a companion to relieve him of the care, and the responsive play of Miss Gertrude Beeger, as Miss Fishwell, ever ready to be coaxed and looking for the opening with a desire to assume the burden left by the first Mrs. Smith, was the artful elderly maiden to perfection. Another amusing scene was the byplay of Mrs. Emma Turner, Mrs. Robert Brown, Miss Mazie Read and Ralph Dodge as the two sickly and ancient ladies burdened in their travels with the care of a flighty and willful daughter bent on finding an affinity and accomplishing the search.

The singing, both the solos and the choruses which were well introduced were all excellent. Misss Castalina Chavis and Miss Loretta Bomberg both sang in excellent voice, while C. G. Landscheit, always good, was at his best. Not only was his voice in excellent trim, but his action was just the thing for the place, and were it not that it is known that the man who handles Redwood City real estate had a good thing, it would be said that Charley Landscheit has miss his calling.

A number of quite small youngsters were introduced into the action and each did extremely well. Many of them had parts of considerable length and showed wonderful lack of the usual stage fright. Especially good in this line was the work of Bobby Chatham and Jack Wehe, who both gave evidence of a natural leaning for their work.

Throughout the presentation of the long act there was the utmost smoothness and the absence of the usual hitches which accompany the first presentation of an amatuer play. The entire party gave evidence of the careful drill and attention to detail given by Miss Ethel Snyder, who directed the production. Not alone had her entire party been thoroughly drilled but the costuming was selected with absolute faith as to design and detail. The members of the Redwood City Womans Club have reason to be proud of the appreciation shown by the people and happy over the substantial assistance given their Club House fund, while those who lent their aid and presence certainly must feel that while supporting a dgood cause they received full value for the money contributed. Certain it is that should these ladies decide at any time to repeat their effort at entertaining, they will meet with a most hearty welcome.

Good Show for Deep Water.

An effort was made by the local people on August 14, 1909, to interest Lieutenant Colonel Biddle, asking that some action be taken on the widening and deepening of Redwood Creek.

Lieutenant Colonel Biddle recommends that the channel be made 150 feet wide at low water with a depth of 5 feet at low water. This refers to that portion of the creek at the City Docks.

Figures show that the tonnage now is 57,500 tons.

After the creek has been enlarged as outlined above, the sum of $1,500.00 per year is available for maintenance.

The matter has received the necessary official endorsements and also the Secretary of War has endorsed it.

The matter now rests with the Committee on Rivers and Harbors of the House of Representatives.

Our understanding of the laws that govern appropriations of this sort is that the approval of the officials are the only essential things.

The approval of the committee on Rivers and Harbors is practically a foregone conclusion.

The copies of all the papers connected with the appropriation for the improvement of the creek, are on file in the Abstract of Title Company's office, and are open for inspection to any one interested.

GETS DAMAGES AT LAST

Old Claim for Injuries Must be Paid by Fuller Paint Company.

This week the Supreme Court handed down the remittitur in the case of Albert Pigeon against the W. P Fuller Company of Baden. A decision was rendered in the upper court last December affirming the decision of Judge Buck of this county The case was appealed from this county in September 1906. A jury awarded damages to Pigeon amounting to $5000 for injuries received at the defendant's paint manufacturing plant at Baden in July,1903 An appeal was taken by defendants alleging that Court erred in its instruction to the jury and evidence was admitted tthat should not have gone into the record of the case.

There were nine points offered to the Supreme Court by the lawyers of the paint company on which a reversal was expected but the higher tribunal sustained the lower court in all the nine issues. The entire amount of the judgment,with interest and cost, will reach nearly $7000. Stanley Moore, who recently made such a fine record in the draft cases in San Francisco appeared for Pigeon and Franklin P. HBull, a well known San Francisco attorney, defended the Company.

Albert Pigeon was employed as a laborer at the paint works at Baden in 1903 and was engaged in putting pigs of lead into buckles when he became lead poisoned and was entirely paralyzed in the right side of the body and right leg and arm. He pleaded that he did not know the dangerous employment he was engaged in and heid the company responsible for his condition. He asked for damages in the sum of $25,000 and was awarded $5,000. The case attracted considerable attention at the time but all interest has long since been lost in the action until it was revived by the decision of the Supreme Court.
